BradyPLUS Expands Presence with Acquisition of Biloxi Paper
The move deepens BradyPLUS's commitment to customers along the Mississippi Gulf Coast

D'Iberville, MS and Las Vegas, NV (JUNE 9, 2025) – BradyPLUS, a leading distributor of janitorial / sanitation ("JanSan"), foodservice and industrial packaging products, has acquired Biloxi Paper Company, a distributor of JanSan supplies and foodservice disposables serving a broad base of customers in the Education, Hospitality, Gaming, Industrial, Municipalities, Facilities Maintenance, and Property Management segments. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

As a 3rd-generation, family-owned and operated business, Biloxi Paper Company takes pride in delivering products and solutions that enable customers to run their business successfully. With deep roots in the Biloxi community, the company brings decades of expertise and a strong commitment to exceptional customer service.

"The acquisition of Biloxi Paper enables us to extend our geographic footprint in a strategically important region," said Kenneth D. Sweder, CEO and Chairman of BradyPLUS. "With this new partnership, we grow our presence in Mississippi's Gulf Coast and enhance the level of support we provide to customers in the region. I am excited to work with Anthony Desporte, Chad Pickich, and the entire team at Biloxi Paper Company."

"We are thrilled to join the BradyPLUS organization," said Anthony Desporte, President. "Our entire team looks forward to being part of a growing company with similar values, enabling us to provide the highest standard of customer service with the greatest resources for our customers."
